STOCKS WEAK IN SPITE OF GOLD IMPORTS.

REGRET THAT REPUBLICAN SUCCESS COULD NOT REACH TO CONGRESS—INDICATIONS OF A HAMSDOME BANK STATEMENT.

Wall Street still retained a degree of satisfaction yesterday at the results of the elections on Tuesday, which are accepted as a demonstration of the return of the Protection sentiment of the country and approval of the sound money policy of the Republican party. But the jubilation which was expressed by the sharp advance in the stock market on Wednesday was sobered yesterday by the reflection that a Democratic Congress still held power. The result was a renewed demonstration by the bear factor which resulted in lower prices. "Oh, if we could only have voted for Congressmen on Tuesday" more than one broker said in substance. The expression of this wish meant that then the Republican triumph would have assured a preservation of the tariff, with the consequent restoration of confidence in the industrial world and a speedy revival of activity in business.

The news of the day was not unfavorable. The steamer Lahn brought in $25,000 gold bars to Lazarus Freres and $25,000 to the Hanover National Bank. Foreign exchange at the New York Stock Exchange was weak.

There were indications of large engagements of gold for tomorrow's steamers sailing from Europe.

But later there was a full recovery in rates and a firm closing. There was a general disposition to look for a bank statement more favorable to a week ago. The movement of currency to the South was again diminished, and the heavy inflow of heavy inflow from Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago. The balance of the movement is now strongly in favor of this city. The deposits in the banks, however, still accumulate, and loans are not believed to have been expanded.

The Sub-Treasurer here has been in business here about eight years. The divorce suit between Mr. Braumiller and his wife was before the Superior Court a few days ago.

nothing definite learned, and the company has not made any propositions to the men.

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 9.—The moulder in the Russell & Irwin works at New Britain received notice of a reduction of wages.

It is feared that the wages of other employees will be reduced.

TRROUBLES OF BUSINESS MEN.

Springfield, Mass., Nov. 9.—The Tucker & Cook Manufacturing Company of Conway and this city, making cotton warp, is financially embarrassed, and a meeting of the creditors is called for Saturday afternoon. The suspension is the result of the failure of S. Blaisdell, Jr., and Co., of Chicopee. The capital stock is $60,000. The liabilities are $60,000.

Fair Haven, Mass., Nov. 9.—Maurice Barlow, leather dealer and manufacturer, has been made to pay. No statement has yet been made, although it is to be large. Many of the mills in this city are heavy creditors. It is the mills that the failure was principally due to. Dr. Rusk send for Dr. Hamilton, the ex-Secretary's close friend.

HENRY G. HILTON'S HORSES TO BE SOLD.

Deputy Sheriff Heimberger has announced the sale of the horses and carriages of Henry G. Hilton, set aside on an execution for $904 in favor of E. J. Donnell, to take place to-day at the stable No. 126 to 130 West Thirty-second-st. The property consists of four horses, one light wagon, one family carriage, two open buggies, $100 in harness, etc., put in a sum at the Sheriff's office that the property belonged to her, but Mr. Donnell can have an indemnity bond of $3,000 to the Sheriff to sell the property, and efforts to stop the sale proved fruitless yesterday.

THE WEATHER REPORT.THE CYCLONE PASSES NORTH.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The storm which was central to the Middle Atlantic coast this morning has passed to the northeast, followed by decreasing northerly winds along the Middle Atlantic coast, but northeasterly gales are reported to-night from the southeast New-england coast. The barometer has risen in New-england, and fallen decidedly in Southeast New-england. There has been a general decrease of pressure from the Mississippi Valley westward over the Rocky Mountains, and a rapid increase of pressure over the North Pacific coast. It is higher in Northern New-england and generally to the west of the Rocky Mountains; elsewhere the temperature has remained about stationary. Fair weather has prevailed, except in the East Gulf States and in the southern portion of the South Atlantic States, where local showers have been scattered.

The indications are that fair weather will prevail Friday, except possibly local showers in the South Atlantic and East Gulf States.

DETAILED FORECAST FOR TO-DAY.

For New-england, generally fair weather; northeast winds; cooler in southeast and slightly warmer in north-west portions.

For Eastern New-York, Eastern Pennsylvania, New-Jersey and Delaware, fair; north to east winds; slightly cooler.

For the District of Columbia and Maryland, generally fair; cool. For Virginia, fair; possibly local showers in the southeast portion; northeast winds.

For North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, fair; except local showers along the coast; northeast winds.

For Western New-York and Western Pennsylvania, generally fair, but possibly light showers along the lakes; east winds.

For Indiana and Illinois, fair; winds shifting to south; slightly warmer in northern portion.

THE BODY OF A WELL-DRESSED MAN FOUND FLOATING IN A POOL OF WATER AT MOUNT VERNON.

The body of a well-dressed man, apparently that of a foreigner, thirty-five years old, was found floating yesterday morning in a pool of water which filled the excavation made by the New-York, New-Haven and Hartford Railroad, for the purpose of lowering their tracks at Eighth-ave. and the river, Mount Vernon. An examination of the body revealed an abrasion about an inch in diameter, having over the right shoulder, and had been caused by a blow or by falling against a sharp rock. Nothing was found upon the dead man's person, except a card with the name and address of the deceased, John W. Jackson, 101 One-hundred-and-fifth-st., New-York City. The card read: "Station Central Road, One-hundred-and-thirty-eighth-st. He wants to go to Danbury, Conn." The body had evidently been floating for some time. When the convict threw at his feet a pair of breeches and a suit of striped clothing he displayed much emotion. He was taken to cell No. 303 in the No. 8. Chief Keeper Conington said that Weeks would be kept in the "dead gang" for the present.
